

Bathroom use

Ensure shower curtains are used correctly, damages caused by incorrect use of the enclosures are the responsibility of the tenant

If shower curtains are not used water splashes over to the floors and cause leaks on to the ceilings resulting in damages and will be the responsibility of the tenant

Ensure shower curtains are extended, air dried and keep bathroom ventilated at all times

Ensure to dry the bath wet area after each use to minimise mould and damp, damage caused by incorrect use of the enclosure are the responsibility of the tenant

Ensure water is not splashed away from the wet bath area on to the floors

Ensure to dry the floors of any water splashes

Ensure windows are opened and appropriate ventilation is provided

Ensure taps and showers are closed correctly and they are not dripping

Ensure appropriate bath mats are used on floors

Ensure extractors are used when required

Ensure to mop and keep dry floors regularly

Ensure bath and sink drains are clear and cleaned regularly

Ensure shower curtains are cleaned and washed regularly