

Testing alarms

Highly recommended to test smoke alarms regularly Ideally once a week

Press test button and check whether all alarms are sounding at the same time

All alarms are interlinked therefore once one alarm test button is pressed all alarms should sound

Test carbon monoxide alarms regularly Ideally once a week